

Become a Hospitality Manager

What You Need to Enroll

Most programs are designed for school leavers and require:

- Grade 12 certificate (or Grade 10 for some foundation or vocational programs)
- Passes in English and Mathematics are helpful
- A strong interest in service, travel, and business operations
- Some institutions may require an interview or short assessment

Where You Can Study Hospitality Management in Namibia

Here are top institutions offering beginner-friendly hospitality programs:

Institution	Program	Location	Highlights
Windhoek Hospitality & Culinary College (WHCC)	Diploma in Hospitality Management	Windhoek	50-week program + 20–24 week internship; covers hotel ops, service, and management ¹
Namibia University of Science & Technology (NUST)	Bachelor of Hospitality Management	Windhoek	Full-time degree; includes marketing, operations, and tourism planning ²
Vocational Training Centres (VTCs)	Hospitality & Tourism	Various towns	Practical, hands-on training for entry-level roles
Silver Spoon Hospitality Academy	Hospitality & Culinary Courses	Windhoek	Short courses and diplomas with industry exposure

What You'll Learn

Depending on the program, you'll cover:

- Hotel and restaurant operations
- Customer service and front office management
- Event planning and tourism marketing
- Food & beverage service
- Business and financial basics

Become a Hospitality Manager

Career Paths After Graduation

You can work in:

- Hotels, lodges, and resorts
- Tour companies and travel agencies
- Event planning and catering
- Cruise ships or international hospitality chains

1 whcc.com.na

2 fchse.nust.na